

Biehl Receives Prestigious Builders Exchange President’s Award

Columbus, OH, November 20, 2017: Robert A. Biehl, CPA, CCIFP, was awarded the Builders Exchange of Central Ohio President’s Award at the 125th BX Annual Meeting held November 16, 2017 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center.

The President’s Award has been presented annually since 1979, recognizing an individual who has volunteered countless hours behind the scenes contributing to the construction industry and developing BX programs. Founded in Columbus in 1892, the BX has more than 700 member firms representing the entire spectrum of the industry including architects, engineers, material suppliers and manufacturers, along with related professionals such as attorneys, bankers, accountants and computer specialists.

Bob joined GBQ in 1987 and provides audit, accounting, litigation support and management consulting to over 50 construction and construction related entities. He serves as the firm’s Director of Construction Industry Services and is involved in the maintenance of the firm’s quality control standards for construction clients.
