Nakicevic Joins GBQ as Tax Director

Columbus, OH, June 21, 2018: GBQ is pleased to announce that Azra Nakicevic, CPA, has joined the firm as a Director in our tax practice. She is based out of GBQ's Columbus office.

Azra has over 17 years of Big 4 experience in managing large and diverse teams to deliver tax planning and compliance to clients. She is a subject matter expert in pass through-entities (partnerships and S corporations) and individual taxation with a strong focus in the real estate industry. Additionally, Azra has provided an active consulting role to clients in choice of entity, complex income and loss allocations, troubled debt restructuring, like-kind exchanges, tax credits, involuntary conversions and structuring related to merger and acquisitions of businesses.

"We welcome Azra as a new Tax Director. Her breadth of experience will provide valuable advice to our clients operating in an environment of uncertainty and challenges brought about by the changing tax laws. Azra's expertise will complement and expand the thought leadership within the GBQ tax department and we are delighted to have her join our team," said Tim Schlotterer, Director of Tax Services.
