Jane began her career in public accounting with GBQ Partners in 1982.

Over the years, Jane has had extensive experience serving clients in a variety of industries including healthcare, personal service organizations and real estate. She provides accounting, tax compliance and consulting for small to middle-market, closely held businesses and assists clients with their business planning, compliance and tax examination needs. She has worked with high-net worth individuals and many family owned businesses, providing them with a variety of tax planning and compliance services.

Jane leads our physician practice area and has worked with many specialty physician practices. She has worked closely with physicians to guide them through business and tax compliance issues. Jane also has significant experience in providing tax compliance and consulting to high net worth individuals. She has considerable experience in income and estate planning and is certified by the AICPA as a Personal Financial Specialist (PFS). She assists clients with accomplishing their personal, business and financial goals.

Jane is passionate about supporting the firm through her involvement in various firm initiatives such as the alumni newsletter committee. She is a volunteer with The Women's Fund and is a member of the Women's Leadership Council of United Way of Central Ohio.
