Dollin Promoted to Valuation Senior Manager

Columbus, OH, June 23, 2018: GBQ is pleased to announce that Eric Dollin, ASA, has been promoted to Valuation Senior Manager. Eric is based in our Indianapolis, IN office.

Since joining GBQ in 2007, Eric has performed or contributed to over 600 valuation, merger and acquisition, and forensic/litigation assignments for a variety of purposes including estate and gift taxation, Employee Stock Ownership Plans and purchase price allocation in accordance with ASC 805. His experience also includes business appraisals of entities in various industries, including industrial manufacturing, oil and gas, fabrication, insurance, automotive, technology and healthcare.

"Eric has been an integral part of our rapidly growing valuation and ESOP consulting practice for many years. His experience and expertise, particularly in the ESOP and ownership transition markets, is nationally-recognized by clients and advisors in Indiana, Ohio, and nationally. We are excited to welcome Eric to the most senior ranks of our leadership team," said Brian Bornino, Director of Valuation Services.

Eric is a member of the American Society of Appraisers, Association for Corporate Growth, CFA Institute, The ESOP Association, Miami University Farmers School of Business Young Professional Advisory Council and Young Professionals of Central Indiana.
