Noll Promoted to Valuation Director

Columbus, OH, July 2, 2019: GBQ is pleased to announce that Kelly Noll, CFA, has been promoted to Director, Valuation & Financial Opinion Services. Kelly is based in our Columbus, OH office.

Since joining GBQ in 2008, Kelly has performed hundreds of valuation engagements involving businesses, business interests and intangible assets of privately held and publicly traded companies. These engagements have been performed for numerous purposes including estate and gift taxation, business succession planning, purchase price allocations, goodwill impairment testing, mergers and acquisitions, ESOP valuations and consulting, buy-sell agreements, stock option grants, shareholder disputes and other tax, litigation and corporate-related matters.

"We are excited to promote Kelly Noll to a Director in our valuation practice. Kelly is an integral part of our rapidly growing group, serving as a primary point-of-contact for many clients across the country, as well as a key mentor and role model for our less experienced staff. During her tenure at GBQ, Kelly has become a thought leader in the valuation industry, serving as a frequent speaker and author on valuation-related topics, and earning the prestigious CFA designation. Her commitment to world-class quality, client service and technical expertise are invaluable assets to GBQ," said Brian Bornino, Director of Valuation Services.

Kelly is a member of Association for Corporate Growth, CFA Institute, CFA Society of Columbus, The ESOP Association and The Catholic Foundation Professional Advisors Group.
