Darci Congrove joined GBQ in 1998, and became a Partner in the firm in 2003. In 2010, Darci was elected Managing Director. In this role, Darci guides the strategy and operations of the Firm.

Prior to joining the Firm in 1998, Darci worked in the tax practices of two regional firms. Her client base has been focused on partnerships and LLCs for most of her career. She works with large real estate companies and operating businesses, for all of whom she performs a wide range of tax planning and compliance services, as well as general business consulting.

Darci is actively involved in the community and serves as Board Vice President of the Columbus-Franklin County Finance Authority and VP of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. She is also actively involved at The United Way of Central Ohio and The German Village Society.

Darci graduated from the Leadership Columbus program in June 2003, and was named by Columbus Business First as one of Columbus' Forty Under 40 young professionals in 2002.

Darci was chosen as one of the 12 outstanding leaders by the Women for Economic and Leadership Development (WELD) in 2010, received the 2010 United Way of Central Ohio's Robert S. Crane Jr. Young Philanthropist Award, and was recognized by Columbus Business First in 2015 as one of Central Ohio's Influential Women to Know.

In 2015, Darci was awarded The Frank Fetch Award from the German Village Society, the Society's highest honor. In 2019, Darci was recognized as a YWCA Woman of Achievement in honor of her professional and community service accomplishments.

Darci frequently speaks in the community on topics of tax, wealth planning and business management issues.
