Nakicevic Named Tax Partner

Columbus, OH, November 21, 2019: GBQ is pleased to announce that Azra Nakicevic, CPA, Director, Tax & Business Advisory Services, has been named a Partner in the Firm.

“We are proud of Azra’s accomplishments throughout her professional career and honored to recognize her efforts and success by promoting her to Partner. She is a difference-maker in our tax practice, as well as a leader, admired and respected by our associates. Azra’s expertise and practical advice help empower growth; growth of our people, our communities, and our clients’ businesses,” said Tim Schlotterer, Director of Tax Services.

Azra joined GBQ in 2018 with over 17 years of Big 4 experience providing tax planning and compliance services to clients in a variety of industries including real estate, construction, private equity, hospitality and asset management. She is a subject matter expert in pass-through entities and individual taxation with a strong focus in the real estate industry. Additionally, Azra has provided an active consulting role to clients in choice of entity, complex income and loss allocations, troubled debt restructuring, like-kind exchanges, tax credits, involuntary conversions and structuring related to merger and acquisitions of businesses.
