Kevin graduated cum laude from The Ohio State University in December 2013. He joined GBQ full-time in September 2014, and obtained his CPA certification in July 2015. During his first two years with GBQ, Kevin completed the firm's rotation program, serving clients in both our Federal Tax and Assurance practices before joining the Assurance practice full-time in 2016.

Kevin has spent his entire career with GBQ, facilitating audits, reviews, and compilations for clients in a wide variety of industries, including advanced manufacturing, professional services, technology, nonprofit, energy and utilities, and employee benefit plans. The companies he services range in size from emerging startups to multinational corporations. He's also a leader in GBQ's Asset Management practice.

When he's not assisting clients, Kevin leads GBQ's community service efforts with Pelotonia, which have raised over $250,000 to support cancer research at The Ohio State University Comprehensive Cancer Center – James Cancer Hospital and Solove Research Institute. He also supports the firm's associate recruiting, development, and mentoring programs.
