Ashbrook Promoted to Forensic & Dispute Advisory Senior Manager

Columbus, OH, January 26, 2021: GBQ is pleased to announce that Mallory Ashbrook, CPA, CVA, JD, has been promoted to Senior Manager, Forensic & Dispute Advisory Services. Mallory is based in our Columbus, OH office.

"Mallory has been an integral part of GBQ's Forensic and Dispute Advisory practice growth for many years. A nationally recognized leader in the industry, her expertise and perspective are valued by her clients. We congratulate her on this well-deserved promotion and are thankful that Mallory is part of the firm's leadership team. I am confident that Mallory will continue to do great things professionally and for GBQ on into the future," stated Rebekah Smith, Director of Forensic & Dispute Advisory Services.

Mallory joined GBQ in 2014 with experience in litigation, business valuation and fraud-related services. She continues to lead a wide variety of valuation and economic damages engagements for numerous purposes including commercial litigation, family law, and fraud matters. Mallory is responsible for assessing the facts of each particular case, determining the best course of action, performing the financial analysis, writing reports for the clients and/or courts, and testifying, as necessary.

A member of the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (NACVA), Mallory was named to the NACVA Standards Board in 2020, and was named a NACVA 40 Under Forty honoree, designed to recognize emerging leaders in the profession. Additionally, Mallory is a member of the American Bar Association, The Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants and Columbus Young Professionals Group. She is the past president and current Board member of Friends of Court Appointed Special Advocates of Franklin County, Ohio (Friends of CASA). Mallory is also a member of the Emerging Leaders Board, previously known as the COSI Young Professional Board.
