GBQ Honored in Second Annual Best in Ohio Business Poll

Columbus, OH, November 18, 2021: GBQ is proud to announce it has earned the recognition of being named a Best in Ohio award recipient by Ohio Business magazine for the second consecutive year. The program was created in 2020 to honor the many businesses and services that make Ohio a great place to do business.

This online competition received thousands of submissions among 96 categories. The publication's readers, along with GBQ's clients and friends, voted GBQ as "Best Accounting Firm – Tax Services."

When asked to share why GBQ was awarded this accolade, Managing Director Darci Congrove shared, "At GBQ, our purpose is clear: we empower growth: growth of our people, our communities and our clients' businesses. People are the heart of our business, whether it be clients, prospects, or, first and foremost, our very own associates. They are what make our firm tick. We're driven by the outcomes that we know can change the lives of those we work with and for."
