Brian plays an integral role on GBQ's State and Local Tax team. He provides various state and local tax services, focusing primarily on multistate sales and use tax issues, sales and use tax audits and SALT transaction advisory services.

Prior to joining GBQ, Brian was an attorney at Dickinson Wright PLLC in Columbus, OH. His practice focused on mergers, acquisitions and business reorganizations, federal income tax matters and IRS controversies. Prior to that, Brian interned at KPMG's Columbus, OH office in their SALT department, focusing on indirect taxes.

Through analytical insight and industry knowledge, Brian delivers tailored solutions that align with our client's business objectives, fostering long-term partnerships and driving success in state and local taxation.
